

Preparation of Your Abstract

1. The title should be as brief as possible but long enough to indicate clearly the nature of the study. Capitalise the first letter of a sentence. No full stop at the end.
2. Abstracts should state briefly and clearly the purpose, methods, results and conclusions of the work (Word limit: 200 words).

Introduction:	Clearly state the purpose of the abstract
Methods:	Describe your selection of observations or experimental subjects clearly
Results:	Present your results in a logical sequence in text, tables and illustrations
Conclusion:	Emphasize new and important aspects of the study and conclusions that are drawn from them
